What's happening with Letters and Sounds

You may have heard that the DfE have announced they will not be making an updated progression for the 2007 Letters and Sounds framework mandatory, or publishing a new full Letters and Sounds programme.

All of the current validated phonic programmes will need to apply again for validation and new programmes can be put forward. The validation process will take place in June 2021, November 2021 and March 2022. The 2007 Letters and Sounds progression will not be validated, as it is not a full programme. The DfE produce a list of validated resources so you can be confident that your phonics resources are high-quality and provide an effective and complete SSP programme.

There will be no mandatory move to a new progression or requirement to change to a new programme in schools who are delivering effective teaching of systematic, synthetic phonics from reception and achieving good results. This means that many schools can continue to use the resources they have already invested in if they closely match the school's phonic progression.

English Hubs have funding available which schools can apply for to support the teaching of phonics, however schools will need to use a validated phonic programme to qualify for funding. An updated list of validated programmes for teaching phonics will be available from the DfE for schools who wish to apply for funding from the English Hubs to help improve their phonics provision.

What does this mean for my school?

If you're thinking about changing your phonics provision

Take a look at Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised SSP.

From the makers of the highly acclaimed Letters and Sounds online lessons, this new SSP has been developed by schools for schools. It provides a convenient, consistent and highly effective approach to teaching phonics, based on latest research. The programme has everything you need to teach phonics and meet Ofsted's expectations to enable every child to become a reader. It includes exciting new mnemonics, a clear term by term progression for teaching the sounds, complemented by daily lesson plans, built in assessment and online training. The progression is based on the DfE's publication 'Letters and Sounds: Improving Rates of Progress 2021'.

120 Collins Big Cat Phonics for Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised readers will be available in September and will fully support the Little Wandle progression with more readers to come over the next year.

We are also publishing classroom resources to support teaching of the Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised SSP – see pages 2-3 for full details, and find out more about the Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised SSP at littlewandlelettersandsounds.org.uk.

Classroom resources that give you everything you need to teach phonics!

This programme has been developed by two partners with exceptional practice in Letters and Sounds – Little Sutton Primary and Wandle Learning Trust. Working together as Little Wandle they have transformed Letters and Sounds into a complete SSP programme comprised of print classroom resources published by Collins Big Cat and a package of online resources available direct from Little Wandle – go to littlewandlelettersandsounds.org.uk for full details.

Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised provides an updated progression based on 'Letters and Sounds: Improving Rates of Progress 2021', published by the DfE. It is aligned with the higher expectations of the 2014 National Curriculum, the Phonics Screening Check and the 2019 Ofsted Inspection Framework.

Created by schools for schools, Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised is a hands-on programme and highly practical to deliver.
