ABOUT THE BOOK

Inspired by the author's own experience of raising her children to celebrate their British and Indian heritage, Best of All is a gorgeous and heartwarming book exploring what makes us who we are.

This treasure of a book is perfect to share with multi-heritage children, and to celebrate any child's unique family history.

OUR THOUGHTS

Celebrates families, heritage and who you are. No sentimentality here but a refreshing, inspiring read with excellent rhyming and beautiful illustrations.

TIME TO TALK

- 1 How are you similar to your mum? What beautiful features of hers do you have?
- 2 How are you similar to your dad? Which one of his best characteristics do you share?
- 3 What qualities do grandparents have? What do you love about your grandparents?
- 4 What foods would you choose to best describe you? Can you write a rhyming couplet to describe yourself to food?
- 5 Why would you want to be like 'the tail of a peacock and the trunk of a tree?' What beautiful things in nature would you choose to describe yourself?
- 6 'Countries hold hands exquisitely new.' Which different countries make up you, what is your heritage?
- 7 What stories have your parents or grandparents shared about your heritage?
- 8 What makes you so unique and special? What story would you like to pass onto your own children?
